

Meki Batu Union

Meki Batu Fruits and Vegetables Growers' Cooperative Union Ltd — Company Profile

About the Union

Meki Batu Union was founded on May 11, 2002, in Meki town, East Shewa Zone, Oromia, Ethiopia, starting with 12 primary cooperatives and 527 members across Dugda woreda and Adami Tulu Jido Kombolcha, near Lake Ziway. The union consolidates and markets members' fruit and vegetable produce, supplies farm inputs at fair prices, facilitates access to credit, distributes market information, and provides mechanization and technical training support to its member cooperatives.

Today the union brings together more than 140 primary cooperatives, selling over 50,000 tonnes of fruit and vegetables each year through five retail outlets in Addis Ababa and export channels reaching Europe. The union is GlobalG.A.P certified, meeting international standards for food safety, traceability, and responsible farming practice.
